Medical Consultation Report

Patient Name: David Wilson
Age: 58 years
Gender: Male
Date: 12 March 2025
Hospital: Fortis Hospital
Consulting Doctor: Dr. Priya Sharma

The patient presented with persistent fever, productive cough, chest discomfort, and fatigue for five days. Clinical examination suggested community-acquired pneumonia. HbA1c was 8.2%, Blood Glucose was 240 mg/dL, and WBC Count was 14,500 cells/uL.

Diagnosis: Community-acquired Pneumonia with uncontrolled Type 2 Diabetes Mellitus.

Medications: Azithromycin 500 mg once daily for 5 days, Paracetamol 650 mg every 6 hours as needed, and Metformin 500 mg twice daily after meals.

The patient was advised to return after one week for follow-up.